

Bamboolee's New Shoes

When Sally got to the register to pay for the shoes they were very expensive. Sally was excited to get the shoes for Bamboolee. When she gave the shoes to Bamboolee, they were too small.

Bamboolee was so angry. "We need to take these back to the store so someone else can buy them."

Sally said, "Maybe I need to take you to the store with me so you can buy your own shoes."

When they got back to the store, Sally helped Bamboolee pick out a pair of shoes that were size six. The new shoes looked like a fish.

Bamboolee felt happy and put his new shoes on. Then him and Sally went to a party.
